

GIVE A CONVINCING GRANT PROPOSAL PRESENTATION

Support for funding applications

You are at the head of a research project and you want to gain the trust of sponsors.

During a grant proposal presentation, you only have a few minutes to explain what your project consists in and to convince the members of the jury.

Discover, with a coach, the basics of public speaking and oral argumentation, all while perfecting your presentation for D-day.

You can send your funding application to your coach and schedule an appointment to receive personal feedback.

Objectives

Target your main message(s)
Clarify your presentation materials

Training duration

2 to 4 days

Number of participants

1 to 3 people

Audience

Project leaders looking for funding

Educational resources

Theoretical and methodological background, practical exercises, group exchanges, training course manual in PDF format

Evaluation procedures

Questionnaire at the beginning and at the end of training (self-evaluation)

Program

Target your main message(s)

Define your communication objectives
Grasp the jury's expectations
Work on your arguments
Emphasize your strengths

Clarify your presentation materials

Choose the appropriate content
Rely on simplicity
Use compelling photos and figures
Find a graphic balance